

The Monthly Oracle

HERE COMES THE NEW

When the Management Upstairs start to introduce new possibilities they outsource these ideas to more than one person in one place. The reason for this is that not all people will catch on and even fewer will take notice. And those who do catch on, will present on within their own format and their own skill areas.

Imagine my delight and amusement when I received an e-letter from my long standing friend and colleague William Bloom. He has a similar intention but a different form of presentation regards certain ideas that we are considering. Harmonious and in compliment to our own. Take a look at his websites and sign up if that is your wish.

Speaking of websites www.judyfraser.com is now updated, upgraded and on line. My sincere thanks to the wonderful friends and colleagues who have worked so hard to make this happen. And my love and respect for them knows no bounds.

William Bloom's new venture is explained at www.holisticmap.org and www.f4hs.org (short for Foundation for Holistic Spirituality).

There you will see what he and his colleague are doing and what you might do too.

News and views"

The new website is up and running at www.judyfraser.com Dedicated hard work from Toby, Pav and Alex has made this possible and I am so grateful to them all.

Everything is free but we are happy to accept donations via Pay Pal Judy Fraser is the account name. The charge for the newsletter and subscription are no longer. The current issue along with back copies will be available on the site.

There are CD's to download. A Short Guide to Self Awareness to help with responses to change. And various modules available to help support difficulties during changing times. Please take a look and tell your friends about the service.

There is a discussion section and lots of other interesting things will be added in the future. The best of the essence of the old has been re-administered and all else dropped. We have done a reality check as to what is possible and what is needed and let go of any romantic notions.

What that means is that the new chapter is here and the old chapter finally laid to rest. Now there is the space to be able to describe some of the possible new ventures we are all finding ourselves involved within. Happy harvest indeed.

THE PILGRIMS WAY

Finding our way is like moving into and through a forest: we think we will never find our way. We seem to be trapped in the past and unable to see the future. Will we ever be able to find our way? In the picture to the right is the way ancient paths were signed, even in what seem to be impossible circumstance. Suddenly and unexpectedly the way forward is marked, sometimes in the most unexpected manner. The way forward suddenly clarified and all other options fade into insignificance. What a gift. Now it is up to us to move on in faith and surety. We have administered the past as best we can, and we are connecting to an uncertain future. However even if we do not know what we will be doing as yet, the pathway has been established and we can be certain we are being watched over and the way is guided.

Conscious Decisions by Debbie Cameron

Going against what is popular, just because an idea or way of doing things is popular doesn't mean it's right for everyone. However, part of the way that something becomes popular is that many of us don't take the time to determine what's right for us; we simply do what most of the people we know are doing. In this way, our decisions about life are made by default, which means they aren't what we call conscious decisions. There maybe many other options available, but we don't always take the time to explore them. This may be the result of feeling overwhelmed or pressured by family, peers, and humanity at large, to do things their way, the way things have always been done. Regardless of the cause, it is important that, as often as we can, we decide for ourselves what to do with our lives rather than just drift along on the current of popular opinion.

It is not always easy to make decisions that go against the grain. Many people feel threatened when those close to them make choices divergent from the ones they are making. Parents and grandparents may be confused and defensive when we choose to raise our children differently from the way they raised us. Friends may feel abandoned if we decide to change our habits or behavior. Meanwhile, on our side of the fence, it's easy to feel frustrated and defensive when we feel unsupported and misunderstood simply because we are thinking for ourselves. It can be exhausting to have to explain and re-explain our points of view and our reasons.

This is where gentleness, openness, and tolerance come into play. It helps if we are calmly persistent, consistent, and clear as we communicate to those around us why we are making the choices we are making. At the same time, we have the right to say that we are tired of talking about it and simply need our choices to be respected. Our lives belong to us and so do our decisions. Those who truly love us will stand by us and support our choices, never mind what's popular.

MAGNETIC SHIFTS

Reports circulating in the Kremlin are saying that Russian Air Force Commanders have issued warnings to all of their aircraft to exercise “extreme caution” during flights “in and around” an area defined as Latitude 17 North [North Atlantic Ocean] Latitude 3 South [South Atlantic Ocean] to Latitude 8 North [Indian Ocean] Latitude 19 South [Indian Ocean] between the Longitudes of 46 West, 33 West, 46 East and 33 East, and which covers the greater part of the African Tectonic Plate.

The reason for this unprecedented warning, these reports state, are the rapid formations of “geomagnetic storms” emanating from the boundaries of the African Tectonic Plate that due to their intensity have caused the loss of two major passenger aircraft during the past month leaving nearly 300 men, women and children dead.

The first aircraft to be downed by this phenomenon was Air France passenger flight 447, and which these reports say that upon encountering one of these geomagnetic storms, on June 1st, near the western boundary of the African Tectonic Plate close to Brazil’s Fernando de Noronha Islands, was “completely annihilated” causing the deaths of 216 passengers and 12 crew members as their plane plunged in pieces into the Atlantic Ocean.

The second aircraft to be downed occurred on the eastern boundary of the African Tectonic Plate when another of these geomagnetic storms slammed from the sky a Yemeni Airways flight to the Island Nation of Comoros in the Indian Ocean of which of the 153 passengers and crew aboard, only 1 “miracle child” was rescued.

To the catastrophic events occurring within the African Tectonic Plate it has been known for over a year with the reporting of a “new ocean” forming in Ethiopia, and as we can read as reported by Nature News Service:

“Although the birth of an ocean is an extremely rare phenomenon on the largest of historical scales, the geophysics is currently experiencing such an event. Even more dazzling, this occurs in one of the Earth’s most inhospitable and arid regions, the Afar Depression in Ethiopia.

The African continent is literally unstitching itself apart just like the sleeve of an old shirt, along the area known as the East African Rift, which traverses it beginning with the southern end of the Red Sea, going through Eritrea, Ethiopia, Kenya, Tanzania and Mozambique. The molten lava beneath the Earth’s surface makes it thin by constantly pushing against it, and eventually breaks it and tears it apart.”

Though Western scientist assert that the formation of this new ocean is not likely to be finished for millions of years, Russian scientists state, unequivocally, that due to the Sun’s current unprecedented Deep Solar Minimum, our Earth is in danger of being, literally, “ripped apart”, at the worst, or nearing a “total pole reversal” due to an as yet unexplained, but extremely powerful, gravitational force emanating from the outer reaches of our Solar System that some researchers state is the mysterious Planet X, and which many believe to be a large brown dwarf and known to the ancient peoples of Earth as Nibiru, and called by the name of Wormwood in the Christian Bible.

Russian scientists further warn that the West’s “obsession” with manmade Global Warming is a deliberately designed propaganda effort to shield their peoples from the fact that not only our Earth, but all of the planets in our Solar System are currently undergoing rapid warming, and as proved, beyond all doubt, by Doctor Scientist Habibullo Abdussamatov, head of space research at St. Petersburg’s Pulkovo Astronomical Observatory in Russia, when in 2007 he released his findings that for the previous 3 years the ice caps of Mars have been melting at an unprecedented rate.

And, as reported by one, of many, dissident Western news sites, “Photographs of the merging of two red spots on Jupiter, evidence of warming on Neptune’s largest moon Triton, warming on Pluto that is “puzzling scientists” and, of course, the already documented warming trend on Mars all add up to convincing evidence for increased solar activity across the entire solar system.”

To the most chilling parts of these reports on the current instability of the African Tectonic Plate are those Russian scientists who assert, that, should a powerful enough gravitational force be exerted upon this region [such as that which would occur in our Earth's presence with a Planet X type body], it would cause this plate to be subsumed with the Atlantic and Indian Oceans completely covering what is now known as the African Continent, and further cause a corresponding rise of what were known to the ancient peoples as the Continents of Atlantis in the middle of the Atlantic Ocean and Lemuria in the Indian and Pacific Oceans.

Interesting to note about these current events is that the most documented psychic of 20th century America, Edgar Cayce, predicted that both Atlantis and Lemuria would arise again during the ending of our Earth's present age, and which many in the World currently believe will be in 2012 as predicted by the Mayan Calendar.

The eclipses back in July were significant. There were three of them the first of them linked to Atlantean frequencies and the masculine energy of what happens when power is in use, and when it is not tempered with love.

The next one linked more to Lumerian frequencies demonstrating what happens when love is used without a structure or an administration that gives a group the power to use it wisely.

And the third one equated to our capacities to review, revise and restructure the union of the two within us. No longer do we live in either patriarchal OR matriarchal societies now we are working for freedom and true equality.

We need to fully understand that regardless of our external sexuality we are to be self-responsible. When we make this commitment then we attract others with the same frequency.

Of course we have specialist skills and abilities within some areas, whereas within others we are not so able. So we begin to repel old situations and to form new groups where all are equally committed to freedom of the individual and to working in harmonious teams where all are wishing to serve the need of the greater good in ways that are compatible and commensurate with their abilities.

To enable this process the old begins to break down to enable a reformation to occur. We get bored with what we have been doing, or perhaps discrepancies which are just not acceptable to us begin to crop up. If we are aware and able to observe circumstances with detachment we do not get into judgement or criticism. We are not being attacked unnecessary, nor are we being blamed. We do not have to buy into justification nor do we need to shame the person/people causing us aggravation. We are simply being nudged to move on.

We are lazy and get into the habit of doing what we have always done. We do not like the inconvenience of the aggravation involved with change. That is unless we consciously choose it. If we choose to go away on a holiday we are fully cooperative.

When our soul path requires a move it can be a different story!!

FUTURE POSSIBILITIES

Time to open new options perhaps? We need to really let go and commit to 'not knowing' as we patiently conduct an inventory. The pros and cons of life as it is now so we can formulate questions. For instance do I like doing the job that I have been doing? Do I feel I want to stay within it, or is it the time to move on?

How do I feel about where I am living? Is it too big, too small appropriate to my needs, or not? Is the community I find myself within conducive to my soul journey? Clearly it was once but is it now? Are the people it served domestically/professionally still in need of that service, or are they capable of freeing themselves now? And on and on it goes.

Once the questions have been asked then we begin to receive answers bit by bit. We need to open new options and examine all opportunities. We don't try to solve the mystery we merely collect clues. Knowing what we do not want leads us to what we do need. We have to be truthful, open and flexible.

We logically check out each lead until it comes down to a simple yes/no answer. The process takes time, effort and we may have to self fund the investigation. And we need to be flexible for what we thought was required may turn into something different that we have not even thought of.

Only by letting go of the rigid view we may have held onto can we be shown the way forward. We should meditate and listen to the information within the bigger matrix, the gaps, or however you would wish to describe that which is not understandable as yet. We should pray which is to formulate and ask the relevant questions. Then we open the options the easy, and the not so easy, and wait to see what happens next.

EXPECT THE UNEXPECTED

One day out of the blue we get it! We must retain our awareness and be diligent. It may be a casual phone conversation, a social gathering where we overhear a conversation. We may be pondering on something and suddenly see the potential answer via the encouragement of a newspaper, a street advertisement or the next time we use the internet.

SPIRIT BOND

Back in May this year a friend and I decided to visit a centre on the island of Majorca. It was relatively new and was started to pay tribute to the death of the owners twin. There was an afternoon of mediumship going on and we immediately met Peter on entry. He and I made a connection, he has since returned to the UK to set up www.spiritbond.com This site immediately became very popular and has attracted listeners to their evening radio show on from 8pm- 10 pm (UK time). Peter asked me to do a slot and I have been making an odd guest appearance for a while now.

Suddenly we begin to join the dots and a picture begins to form within our mind. Of course we are not sure as yet, but we are on the way forward. Doubts form, suddenly; what we have been doing that bored us rigid seems to appear very attractive once again!

We are lazy and creatures of habit and we do not like the inconvenience involved within changing and being changed. Be very discerning as to who you discuss these possibilities with. Only ask those who might be involved. Even then be detached, as they go through their processes as you are going through yours.

If it is a profession issue then relevant others may have other ideas which must be accommodated. We have moved beyond the era of the master and the slave. We are all masters and all willingly using our time, skills and abilities towards the common intention of working in service to the common good.

If it is a domestic scenario then do we still have to consider responsibilities regards partners/parents/ children etc. or are we now free to choose on our own. We must not be irresponsible within our movement forward, that is as far as it is within our capacities to observe.

FIRST DO NO HARM

We must assure ourselves that none will be hurt or harmed. But we cannot, nor should we insure ourselves against the risk of moving on. It takes courage and we may be fearful of the consequences but if we think it is the right thing we do it anyway. As children we are thrilled when a little frightened, as adults we lose this ability. And as a result we loose respect for ourselves along with the inner-sense (innocence) and the awe of being led forward on our soul journey.

INSTALLING A HUSBAND

Dear Tech Support,
Last year I upgraded from Boyfriend 5.0 to Husband 1.0 and noticed a distinct slow down in overall system performance, particularly in the flower and jewelry applications, which operated flawlessly under Boyfriend 5.0.

In addition, Husband 1.0 uninstalled many other valuable programs, such as Romance

9.5 and Personal Attention 6.5, and then installed undesirable programs such as Cricket 5.0, AFL 3.0 and Golf Clubs 4.1.

Conversation 8.0 no longer runs, and Housecleaning 2.6 simply crashes the system.

Please note that I have tried running Nagging 5.3 to fix these problems, but to no avail.

What can I do?
Signed, DESPERATE

IT CAN SEEM LIKE A LONG WINTER!

DEAR DESPERATE,

First, keep in mind, Boyfriend 5.0 is an Entertainment Package, while Husband 1.0 is an operating system.

Please enter command: `ithoughtyoulovedme.html` and try to download Tears 6.2 and do not forget to install the Guilt 3.0 update.

If that application works as designed, Husband 1.0 should then automatically run the applications Jewelry 2.0 and Flowers 3.5.

However, remember, overuse of the above application can cause Husband 1.0 to default to Grumpy Silence 2.5, Happy Hour 7.0 or Beer 6.1.

Please note that Beer 6.1 is a very bad program that will download the Snoring Loudly Beta.

Whatever you do, DO NOT under any circumstances install Mother-In-Law 1.0 (it runs a virus in the background that will eventually seize control of all your system resources.)

In addition, please do not attempt to reinstall the Boyfriend 5.0 program. These are unsupported applications and will crash Husband 1.0.

In summary, Husband 1.0 is a great program, but it does have limited memory and cannot learn new applications quickly. You might consider buying additional software to improve memory and performance. We recommend Cooking 3.0 and Hot Lingerie 7.7.

Good Luck!

Tech Support

As we finish up with administering the past and complete all the outstanding jobs we can feel like the winter is upon us. Having been over busy for so long, suddenly there appears to be nothing much to do. Or, if there are usual chores we do not feel like doing them.

Now what? We feel apathetic at best, somewhat depressed at worst. We are facing the unknown again! The unknown is the psychic where all things are possible, none certain. But there is action within inaction and we know a lot is going on, we just do not know what it is as yet. It is vital we set our standards high and believe we are heading for the best we are capable of.

No mediocrities will be acceptable, we trust that we have earned the best and that is what we expect. We trust ourselves to respond to all that comes our way with the competence we have earned and with respect for ourselves and for all other parties involved.

Our attitude is to be one of good humor as we work with a light touch. All is as it should be and is well even if we don't know exactly what it is as yet.
